Hello Steve:

Your March edition of Develop Magazine just came out! Enter the code above and check it out.

In this issue, I have a great article about how to make a million at the Game Connection, Pixar's Jeremy Vickers tells us about the CG industry, and Adrian Hawkins talks about plans for Kujū's next generation. Plus we have extended coverage of the upcoming GCD 09' conference this month in San Francisco.

Your issue is brought to you by Ubisoft, those "Creators of Emotion". Ubisoft is one of our premier advertisers who will be looking for you at GDC 09' inside Booth 5940 in the North Hall.

Happy Reading!
